I, the undersigned, give permission for Worthington Christian Church to transport my child to all WOW programs and its extensions held on and off church premises during the year (September 2017-September 2018). I understand that responsible adults from Worthington Christian Church will drive my child to the activity. I hereby release Worthington Christian Church and its representatives of any liability for emergency, injury, or death while in transport to church or other activities. I understand I am responsible for expenses incurred in an emergency involving my child.

I, the undersigned, release Worthington Christian Church, the youth program (WOW) leaders, teachers, and/or their assistants from all liability for any injuries (mental or physical) or losses incurred while taking part in youth group. In the event of a medical emergency, I authorize the WOW staff to act for me according to their best judgment. I also grant permission for my child to be given treatment at a local hospital if it is deemed necessary. There are no limits to my child's participation except as stated in writing & included with this registration form.

Your child may have pictures and/or videos taken of them while participating in Children, Student and Family Ministry Programs. These pictures and videos may appear in our worship service, on display, on our website or in Worthington Christian Church publications. Initial here if you DO NOT want your child's picture to be used. _____

We expect our students to conform to the following general rules of conduct. Please review these with your children.

- 1- Respect for leaders.
  - We expect our students to be obedient to our leaders at all times.
- 2- Respect for one another.
  - We expect our students to treat one another in a Christ-like manner.
- 3- Respect for the activity.
  - We expect our students to participate in all our activities, even in games that they may not particularly like.
- 4- Respect for the property.
  - We expect our students to treat the buildings, grounds, vehicles and the things in them as they would want their own property treated.
  - Seat belts must be worn at all times in the van.
- 5- Respect for God.
  - We expect our students to respect the name of God.

I, the undersigned, have reviewed the expectations of conduct with my student. I agree if my child is not behaving in a manner consistent with the church's regulations (above) on good conduct, is not following event rules or is being disrespectful to either adults or other students, that my child may be excluded from participation in any or all church events.
